Gracing Extravaganza Festivities
Celebrity mule takes time out of her busy filming schedule to join
Equine Extravaganza on Nov. 4-6

Doswell, Virginia (Sept. 30, 2011)

Yes, mules can dunk! Amazing Grace the trick mule, seen most recently in the 2010 film “Get Low” with Robert Duvall, Sissy Spacek, Bill Murray and Lucas Black, will be joining the star-studded line up at this year’s Equine Extravaganza. This five year old movie star has many talents, including playing basketball, which she will show off to Extravaganza crowds Friday thru Sunday, Nov. 4–6, 2011.

Steve Foster, Grace’s owner, observed that “Grace and I are very pleased to return to Equine Extravaganza.” He continued that, “Being able to come to an event that started her career is great. It’s even better when it’s close to home!”

Grace first attended the Equine Extravaganza in 2008 where she won the America’s Ultimate Horse Idol competition.

“It’s not every day that Hollywood starlets come to Doswell,” said Vicki O’Hara, organizer of Equine Extravaganza. “It is wonderful to see how far she’s come from her 2008 Extravaganza win. While she’s here, I’m hoping she can help me with my free throw.”

About Amazing Grace

Grace is a five year old mule out of a quarter horse mare. Grace is broke to ride, pull a buggy; she jumps and also performs many amazing tricks. She has won many halter classes, jumping competitions, trail classes and much more. Grace was also on the NBC Today Show and The History Channel’s “Only In America with Larry the Cable Guy.” For more information about Grace, please visit www.stevesamazinggrace.com.

About Equine Extravaganza

Equine Extravaganza®, a production of Maryland-based Moonlark, Inc., is a comprehensive, all-breed, all-discipline horse and dog expo, and is one of the largest of its kind on the East Coast. The seventh annual event will be held Nov. 4-6, 2011 at the Meadow Event Park in Doswell, Virginia, and will feature hundreds of the country’s top equine vendors, sponsors, clinicians, performers and professionals.

It’s not just an expo, it’s an extravaganza!
